LEAGUE HOLDS FINAL MEETING AND DISBANDS.

The final meeting of the Hospital League was held yesterday afternoon in the county court room in the court house and after closing up all of the business before it, voted unanimously to disband after eight years spent in an effort to secure a hospital for Paris.

The meeting yesterday was attended by a large number of the members of the league, before whom the plans for the final action of the organization were discussed. This resulted in an order to turn into the endowment fund of the W. W. Massie Memorial Hospital the sum of $2,400 which remained in the treasury of the league after bearing the expense of the purchase an installation of the electric elevator at the institution. This portion of the equipment cost the league the sum of $1,500.

Since the organization of the league in 1908 it has been engaged in a very active movement toward the establishment of a hospital in Paris, and the members labored incessantly for the cause. Mrs. W. W. Massie, upon her death endowed the institution, bequeathing a large sum for the purpose which resulted in the purchase of the home place of the late G. G. White which has since been converted into a modern hospital.

Since the Trustees appointed by the City Council assumed charge of the affairs of the hospital the further need of the league being unnecessary, the meeting was called for yesterday afternoon to wind up the business.

STABBED WIFE FOUR TIMES INFLECTING SLIGHT WOUNDS.

Upon a warrant charging him with malicious cutting, Robert Washington, colored, was arrested yesterday afternoon and lodged in jail. Washington, it is alleged, attacked his wife yesterday morning about nine o'clock at his home in the negro suburb of Claysville and with a knife stabbed her four times. One of the wounds was inflicted in the abdomen, the second in the left breast and the others in the groin and left shoulder. Washington, it is alleged went to his home and after a quarrel with his step daughter, became involved in an argument with his wife. The cutting resulted.

His step daughter had a warrant issued for his arrest and upon a charge of a breach of peace was fined $5 and costs in Squire Fretwell's court.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONFERENCE

The Kentucky Conference of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church, South, held a three days' meeting in Nicholasville last week. The conference opened Monday evening by the address of Rev. J. R. Savage, followed by a testimonial service conducted by Rev. T. W. Watts. "Are You in Tune?" There were two sessions each day during which many helpful talks on Junior work and the best methods for the promotion of the work of the organization in its departments were made. Many prominent workers and speakers were present, among whom were Miss Ada Trawick, Junior Supt. Epworth League of the M. E. Church, South, Nashville, Tenn.; H. G. Price, Junior Supt. Kentucky Conference; Miss Eva Downing, Junior Supt., Newport; Miss Anna Lewis, Lexington; Missionary Society of the Kentucky Conference. About 80 delegates were present as well as visitors from the surrounding towns.

Tuesday afternoon the election of officers for the year was held and the following were selected: J. B. Harris, Lexington, president; H. G. Price, Newport, Vice-president; O. B. Crockett, secretary; G. P. Fisher, Millersburg, treasurer; Miss Eva Downing, Newport, junior superintendent.

Mr. Dennis Snapp, delegate from the Paris League, extended an invitation to the Conference to come to Paris next year, which was accepted.

MILLERSBURG NEGRO IS ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

As the result of the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of Chas. Smoot, a negro, Bun Turner, also colored, was shot and seriously wounded Sunday afternoon about five o'clock at the latter's home in Millersburg.

Turner and Smoot were in the yard of the former's home engaged in a friendly scuffle. Turner it is said was bested in the struggle and started to run in the house. Smoot picked up a shot gun that was laying on the ground and pointing it toward him called to the negro to stop. Without heeding the command Turner kept on when the gun was discharged the shot taking effect in his left shoulder.

Smoot claimed he did not know the gun was loaded and the injured man places no blame upon him. A physician was summoned and gave the injured man medical attention. The wound is of such a nature as to demand special attention and Turner was taken to a Lexington hospital yesterday afternoon.

READY TO PAY PENSIONS.

Capt. W. J. Stone, Confederate Pension Agent, is sending out notices that February pension claims will be paid as soon as the Auditor's office can arrange its books and receive the warrants. May and August claims will be paid on vouchers August 5. It is probable that it will require a special clerk in the Auditor's office to attend to these claims, as the number of warrants to be issued will exceed the number for all other purposes.

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill."

I wish every suffering woman would give

JUDGE GIVEN SEVERE JOLT

Stone Thrown Through Window Was as Long as Jurist's Head, but Not So Thick.

They were speaking about the funny ones that occasionally bulge out in the august courtroom the other evening when Senator Henry Lippett of Rhode Island recalled the discomfiture that once came to a New England judge.

The case before the court, the senator said, was directly due to the erratic flight of a rock that had gone through a plate-glass window. The man who threw the rock was in the prisoners' pen, and an old lady who had seen the excitement was in the witness chair trying to describe the size of the missile.

This apparently was no easy job, for, after the lawyers had futilely worked for several minutes, the judge took up the examination.

"Look this way, madam," said his honor, closing his hand. "Was the stone you saw thrown as big as my fist?"

"It was bigger," answered the witness with impressive deliberation.

"I see," returned the judge, closing both hands together. "Was it as big as my two fists?"

"It was bigger," rejoined the old lady in the same slow voice.

"Good," returned the judge, with a look of encouragement. "Was the stone as big as my head?"

"It was just about as long as your head," slowly replied the witness, "but not quite so thick."—Boston Transcript.

EITHER WAY.

He—Woman is more beautiful than man.
She—Oh, yes, naturally.
He—Oh, no, artificially.

Absurd Deduction.

"John," complained Mrs. Dorkins, "the ashes and garbage in our alley have not been carted away for more than six weeks. I wish you would notify the authorities."

"It wouldn't do any good, Maria," said Mr. Dorkins. "The city has no money to pay for having the ashes and garbage hauled away. The explanation has been given a hundred times."

"No money? Why, that's awful! Then even the mayor and the aldermen have to go without their pay, don't they?"

"O, Maria, what you don't know about the business of running a city would fill a dozen Carnegie libraries!"

Pertinent Question.

Prof. Bliss Perry likes to tell this story about a suffrage meeting which a friend of his attended. After considerable business had been disposed of by the suffragists, one of their number made a motion that the women living in the town where the meeting was held should endeavor at the next election to place a woman on the school board. The presiding officer said, referring to the motion, "Is there any question?"

For a few moments there was silence. Then a shrill voice far up in the gallery said sweetly: "Will you please tell us how you get that smooth effect over the hips?"—Cleveland Leader.

A Traitress.

"She was drummed out."
"Expelled from the suffragettes?"
"Yes," they ascertained that she was merely hating to take off weight, and not through any real zeal for the cause."

MORE POTTERY IS NOW MADE

Value of Production and Importations for Last Year Was in Excess of $46,000,000.

People are using and breaking more cups and saucers than ever before. Last year, according to figures compiled by Jefferson Middleton of the United States Geological survey, pottery to the value of $46,059,604 was consumed in the United States. Of this sum the domestic product was valued at $36,504,164 and the imported products at $9,555,530. The output of pottery for the United States in 1912 showed an increase in value of $1,985,604 over that for 1911. Every product except stoneware and yellow and Rockingham ware participated in the increase. The variety showing the largest absolute gain was sanitary ware, which increased $870,797, and the largest proportional gain was in porcelain electrical supplies, which increased $695,215. The value of white ware, including china but excluding sanitary ware and porcelain electrical supplies, was $17,006,736 in 1912, compared with $16,424,236 in 1911. China ware showed an increase of $119,320, the value reported for 1912 being the highest ever recorded.

The Studebaker "25" Touring Car

Is, we believe, in power, economy of maintenance, easy riding qualities and mechanical excellence, by far the best car ever offered at a low price.

The "25" is a thoroughly high grade automobile. In it will be found essentially the same design, materials and workmanship as in our high-priced cars, while, in performance under all kinds of road conditions, it is exceptionally efficient.

The motor is powerful, but at the same time very quiet. By means of an acetylene primer it is readily started, even in the coldest weather.

The "25" is remarkably simple to control and easy to handle. It can be turned in a small circle. It picks up speed wonderfully, and is an ideal car for swift progress through heavy traffic. It surpasses in hill climbing and in work on muddy roads.

Notice the complete equipment. The upholstery is deep, the painting and body work of the best. The seats are roomy. The "25" will give unqualified satisfaction.

NATIONAL CONSERVATION EXPOSITION, KNOXVILLE, SEPTEMBER-OCTOBER, 1913

Ohio continued to be the leading pottery-producing state of the Union, reporting wares valued at $15,508,735, or 42.49 per cent. of the total, an increase of $733,470. Ohio's principal pottery product is white ware, which represents general household wares. New Jersey was the second largest pottery-producing state, the value of its product in 1912 being $8,935,920, an increase of $533,979. The principal pottery product of the state is sanitary ware. West Virginia was third in 1912, with ware value at $3,365,166, or $484,964 more than the value of the output in 1911. New York, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois were fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh, respectively, in the value of output in 1912.

According to Mr. Middleton's report, which has been issued as an advance chapter from "Mineral Resources" for 1912, the pottery industry was in a high state of development during the year and the value of the pottery products marketed was the largest in the history of the industry. This was due partly to the general prosperity enjoyed by the country at large, but more especially to the steady improvement in the wares themselves in body, design, and decoration. American pottery is gaining a stronger hold on the market, becoming more popular every year. Many if not most of the best hotels and clubs in the country are now using large quantities of domestic china.

More Than Engaged.

"A nice young couple in our crowd was married this summer," relates a nice young fellow in the same crowd, "and when they got back from their honeymoon they went to housekeeping in a certain apartment house in the east end. They had one servant—a little girl whose mother used to do the washing for her folks, and who, therefore, knew all about them, and came cheap and willing. Well, I went to call on them the other evening.

"The little maid met me at the door. She had known me when I called on the girl before she was married, so she smiled when she noticed who I was. But I was polite.

"Are Mr. and Mrs. Smith at home?" I asked.

"Yes, Mr. Brown," she said.

"Are they engaged at present?"

"Why, Mr. Brown!" cried the little girl, blushing, "they're married!"—Cleveland Plain

"Ei" or "Ie?"

Prof. Alfred E. Stearns, principal of the Phillips Andover academy, said at the recent alumni dinner in New York: "The easiest way in raising funds, as in other things, is the wrong way. I remember a man and his easy spelling rule.

"In Orange in my childhood I once complained of the difficulties of spelling. I said that 'ei' and 'ie' in such words as 'believe' and 'receive' always stumped me.

"Then this man patted me on the head and smiled and said:

"My boy, I will give you an infallible rule of 'ei' and 'ie'—a rule that in 47 years has never failed me."

"I expressed my delight and waited. The man resumed:

"The rule is simply this: Write your 'i' and 'e' exactly alike and put your dot exactly between them."

Results of Japanese System.

Whatever criticism might be offered as to the methods of training or defects thereof in school or home, one undeniable truth stands out boldly: Despite its faults, or because of its virtues, Japan's system of education has produced men splendidly brave and noble, and women whose lives stand for all that is tender and beautiful in womanhood and motherhood.—Culinary.

Catty.

"My husband never makes a fool of himself."

"Really?"

"Yes, really! Can you ever tell me of an instance in which he made a fool of himself?"

"How can you believe I am so anxious to hurt your feelings?"

Equivocal.

"I hope these people you are helping live a life of virtue."

"I can answer for two of the virtues, at least, for they certainly live in hope that they are going to live on charity."

THE POISONER.

A human fiend who would enter our stores and markets by night and, after gorging himself, leave poison in all the remaining food, to spread suffering, disease and death throughout the community, would be execrated, pursued and torn to pieces by an outraged populace. Yet a useless insect, playing this role to perfection, is living among us constantly and is regarded merely as a mild source of annoyance, often as a subject of jest.

KENTUCKY-OKLAHOMANS PLAN STATE FEDERATION.

Kentuckians in Oklahoma will meet in Oklahoma City July 12 to organize the State Federation of Kentucky Clubs. The call for the meeting has been sent out by the officials of the Oklahoma City Kentucky Club to the 43,000 expatriate Kentuckians now living in the "Sooner" State.

The call, which is signed by J. R. Keaton, formerly of Grayson, Ky., president of the club in Oklahoma City; Mrs. E. G. Bedford, formerly of Paris; vice-president; Scott Thompson, formerly of Lexington, treasurer; and M. Cornelius, formerly of Russellville, Sect., outlines the work hoped to be done by a State Federation.

It is planned to build a Kentucky home on the State Fair Grounds at Oklahoma City, with logs imported from Kentucky. The building is to house at least 1,000 persons. Besides the idea of the federation is to keep alive in the hearts and minds of the Kentucky-Oklahomans their interest in their native State.

In the same letter with the call for the organization of the federation is a request for the names of all Kentuckians in the State, that the Kentucky-Oklahoma directory may be revised for the year.

BURIAL ASSOCIATION OPENS.

PARCEL POST STAMPS VALID ON ALL MAIL AFTER JULY 1.

Parcel post stamps will be valid on all classes of mail on and after July 1 and ordinary stamps, including commemorative issues, will be good for postage on parcel post packages, under an order issued by Postmaster-General Burleson.

As the distinctive parcel post stamp could heretofore be used only on one class of mail matter much annoyance was caused the public. Mr. Burleson explained that this stamp was designed for use temporarily only, to determine the amount of revenue derived from the parcel post. This has now been ascertained, he said, and the department believes that the public should not be caused further inconvenience.

PAYS PENALTY IN CHAIR.

General May, on the stock of whose pistol was said to have been carved eight significant notches, was electrocuted in the State penitentiary at Edinville Friday.

May, who was christened "even rail," was condemned for the murder of Mrs. Belle Meredith, of Clay county. Mrs. Meredith was shot down after May had killed her husband. They had differed over a boundary line.

May was first convicted for the murder of Meredith and sentenced to life. May had been a deputy sheriff. In a fight several years ago he received twelve bullet wounds and was left for dead.

May had said that he was sure he would not die a natural death and that as he had lived forty-three years, he would rather know when the end was to come so he could be prepared.

DARK HOSE LANDS WIN- CHESTER POSTMASTERSHIP.

The first primary election for the office of postmaster ever held in Central Kentucky was conducted by the Democrats of Clark County Saturday, and Mr. Samuel King, a country merchant, living near Ruckerville, was given the nomination with a total of 732 votes. Charles C. McMord, a brother of Chief of Police McCord, was second with 544. The vote of the other candidates was as follows: Miss Mamie Turner, 335; W. T. Fox, 326; W. D. Clark, 27; J. E. Black, 25. The open ballot was used.

NEW TOBACCO SALES WAREHOUSE PROJECTED.

The success of the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Company last season has inspired growers and dealers with the idea that another warehouse for handling the crops would be equally successful, hence the Paris Tobacco Warehouse Company has been organized, composed of Messrs. Dan Peed, O. Edwards and George W. Ellis, of Paris, and Mr. Buford Allen, a wealthy tobacco dealer of Fayette county.

The necessary $25,000 to start the new enterprise has all been subscribed and the company hopes to be ready for business in the fall. The warehouse for the new company will be located on South Main street, near the plant of the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse Company, the offices to be on Main street and the warehouse proper to front on Barns' Addition. The plant will be as near fire-proof as possible, being built of steel. Ample shed room will be provided for, and the new building will have a capacity of about 200,000 pounds a day.

The matter of securing a permit to build an iron-clad warehouse is before the Improvement Committee of the City Council, objection having been raised by several property holders in the vicinity of the proposed site, and a report will be made at the next meeting of the council.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS

Any man who has lived his life will admit that there are more fools than crooks in the world.

The man that brags that he will try Any Old Thing Once is always wondering where other people get all their money.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who wore a pair of suspenders and a belt at the same time?

You can get used to anything. I know a poor sucker who has had to take it so often that Castor Oil tastes good to him.

Sometimes the man who knocks you gives you a higher rating than the guy who is boosting you.

When a man can't make a dollar a day talking sense, he can always go out lecturing on Eugenics and make a good living.

A 110-pound woman can take a pint of tears and whip any 210-pound man living.

As a rule there isn't a thing going on after midnight, but a dog and a reformer find lots to bark at.

A boy hates soap and water until he discovers that there is a girl in the world. After that his face is always chapped from scrubbing it too much.

A girl doesn't worry much because her gloves wrinkle below the elbows, but it is different with her stockings.

A woman is a person who wants her husband to whip a street car conductor because she got on the wrong car and the conductor wouldn't accept her transfer.

There are only two things a woman can't beat. One is a gas meter and the other is a hard-boiled egg.

Any time a man finds his wife isn't suspicious of him he had better stay at home and pay some attention to her.

Love is a disease and onions and marriage are the only cure.—[Cincinnati Enquirer.]

FOREST NOTES.

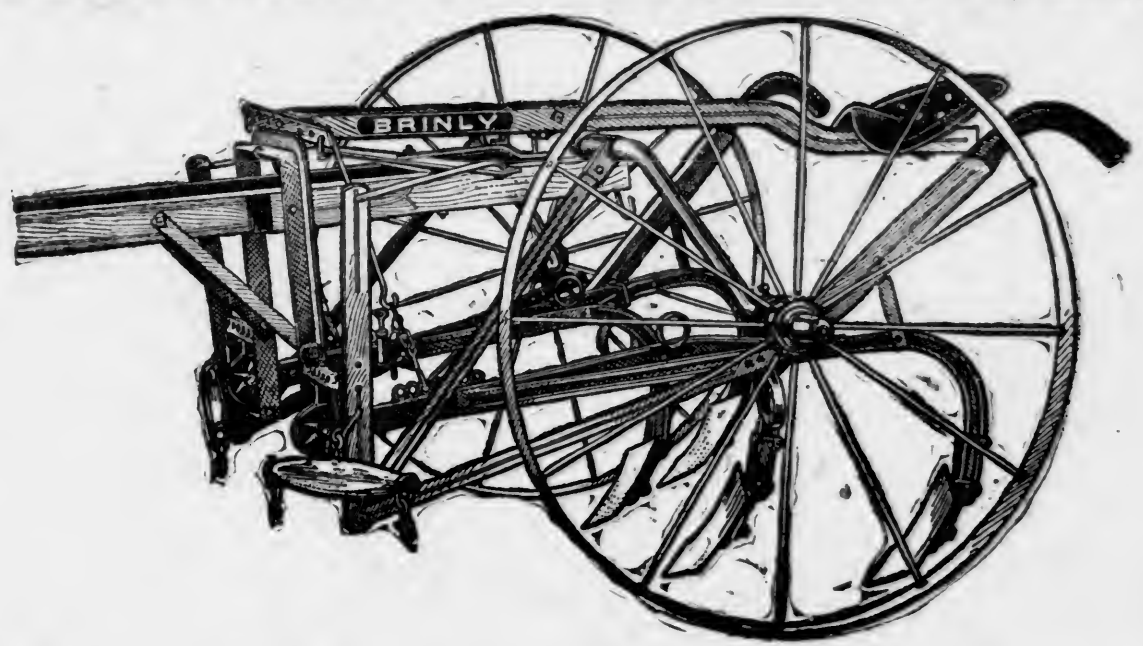

The Balkan War has brought about a rise in certain lumber prices in Europe because of the big demand for wood for ammunition boxes.

Dogwood, the principal source of shuttles for use in cotton mills, is growing scarcer year by year, and various substitutes are being tried, but with no great success.

The officials of the Yosemite National Park are co-operating with the forest officers of the Stanislaus and Sierra national forests for fire prevention and control both in the park and the forests.

Experiments with a tree planting machine at the Utah Agricultural Experiment Station indicate that it may be used to advantage in reforesting old burned areas on the national forests.

The leading forest schools of the country not only have their own forest tracts for continuous experiments, but give their students actual experience in the woods by taking them out and having them take part in big lumbering operations.

INDIANS HERE JULY 9.

The strong Nebraska Indian base ball team will play the Paris Athletic Club team at White Park, on Wednesday, July 9. They are as fast on their feet as Indians ever are, and are sure fielders. At bat they are vicious and with wonderful accuracy of the eye they are able to clout the best of pitchers. These great genuine Indian experts have appeared with great success throughout the United States and Canada, and have an enviable record to their credit, and are without doubt the greatest Indian ball team in the world.

STRING SHIPPED EAST.

The racing string of Woodford Clay, of Bourbon, consisting mostly of two-year-olds, including Breakers, Magnet, Roamer and other clever performers, was shipped Friday from Latonia to Saratoga, in charge of Trainer French Brooks. It was the intention of Mr. Clay a week or two ago to send the string first to Canada before shipping them to the Springs, but as there were several of the bunch alling slightly he finally concluded they would do better by resting up until the Saratoga meeting begins.

R. L. THOMAS SUFFERS STROKE OF PARALYSIS.

Mr. R. L. Thomas, of Lexington, formerly of Paris, a prominent lumberman, and son of the late Capt. J. M. Thomas, is confined to his home from the effects of a stroke of paralysis he suffered while out driving Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Thomas was attacked by the stroke shortly before 6 o'clock, while riding in his automobile. He was immediately taken to his home and physicians were summoned to his assistance. It is impossible to state how serious a condition Mr. Thomas is now in, and his physicians say that his case will require a great deal of close watching. His right side and speech are affected by the attack.

Latest reports from the bedside of Mr. Thomas are to the effect that he is improving from the stroke, which will be gladly received by his numerous friends in this city.

TRICKS OF MIND READING

Where the Subject Involuntarily Furnishes a Clue That Lays Secret Bare.

We all know one kind of mind reading which looks very astonishing and yet which there is no difficulty at all in explaining. It is a favorite performance on the stage, and not seldom tried as a parlor game. I refer to the kind of mind reading in which one person thinks of a hidden coin, and the other holds his wrist and is then able to find the secreted object, writes Hugo Munsterberg in the Metropolitan. There is no mystery in such apparent transmission of the idea, because it is the result of small unintentional movements of the arm. The one who thinks hard of the corner of the room in which the coin placed cannot help giving small impulses in that direction. He himself is not aware of these faint movements, but the man who has a fine sense of touch becomes conscious of these movements in the wrists which his fingers grasp, and under the guidance of these slight movements he is led to the particular place.

A very neat form of the same type is often seen on the stage, when the performer is to read a series of numbers in the mind of some one who thing intensely of the figures. Some one in the audience thinks of the number 57. The performer asks him to think of the first figure then he grasps his hand and counts slowly from zero to nine. After that he asks him to think of the second figure and counts once more. Immediately after he will announce rightly the two digits. Again there was no mystery in it. He knows that the man who thinks of the figure five will make a slight involuntary movement when the five is reached in counting, and the same movement will occur at the seven in the second counting. If he is very well treated, he will not need the touching of the hand; he will perform the same experiment with figures without any actual contact whatever. It will be sufficient to see the man who is thinking of a figure while he himself is counting. As soon as the dangerous digit is reached the man will give some unintentional sign. Perhaps his breathing will become a degree deeper or stop for a moment, his eyelids may make a reflex movement, his fingers may contract a bit. This remains entirely unnoticed by any one in the audience, but the professional mind reader has heightened his sensibility so much that none of these involuntary signs escape him. Yet from the standpoint of science his seeing these subtle signs is on principle no different from our ordinary seeing when a man points his finger in some direction.

Diamond Cut Diamond.

In the days gone by they had been sweethearts; but, alas, hatred is ever akin to love, and the relationship had changed in this case.

One day the former lover had to make a business call on the girl's father and, of course, it so happened that she answered the door.

"I beg your pardon," said the young man, keeping his nerve in the trying circumstances remarkably well, "Miss Perkins, I think? Is your father in?"
"No, he's not, I'm sorry to say.
Did you wish to see him personally?"
asked the maiden, without the slightest sign of recognition showing in her eyes.

"Yes; but it will do tomorrow.
Thank you. I will call again! Good afternoon!"

But this was too much. As he reached the bottom step the lady spoke:

"Pardon me! Who shall I say called?"

As the Youngster Saw Him.

Here is another proof that we can never see ourselves as others see us.
This time it is supplied in a story told by Congressman Claypool of Ohio.

"Some time ago," said the congressman, "the ticket agent of an Ohio railroad was called to the brass-barred window of his little office. Before the window stood a motherly little woman.
Beside her stood a bright-faced boy.

"Please, sir," said the motherly little woman, addressing the agent, "what time does the next train leave for Columbus?"

"It leaves at 2:48, madame," answered the agent with a slight air of annoyance. "I have already told you that no less than six times in the last hour."

"I know you have, sir," gently returned the motherly little woman; "but Johnny likes to see you come to the window. He says it reminds him of the zoo."

New Asparagus Product.

Cellulose is now recovered from the waste of asparagus canning factories by the recently discovered process of Otto Reinke of Hamburg. He also makes use of the stalks which mature after the edible crop is gathered. Heretofore these residues have been practically worthless, except as fertilizers, as they have but little nutritive value when used as coarse paper or packing materials have not resulted satisfactorily. After undergoing a comparatively simple mechanical and chemical treatment they yield a beautiful pure cellulose, which may be used for bandage, blasting material, paper, tissues, fine felt, cardboard, etc.

A Thankless Business.

"Job was the most patient man, wasn't he, father?"
"Yes; he was the most patient man.
Everybody imposed on him."
"And what business was he in?"
"He kept a drug store, I judge."

Truck Replaced Three Teams

In eleven months this three-ton KisselKar Truck covered in actual service 4,760 miles at a fuel cost of $1.08 per day. Manned by a driver and one helper, it replaced three teams of horses. The average daily burden was 37 17.20ths tons. It carried an average load of four tons—one ton overload—but in the entire period named, was laid up only two and one-half hours for repairs.

"We can recommend the KisselKar Truck and assure that it lives up to its guarantee," writes Thomas E. Fleischer, manager of the Sheboygan Lime Works.

Two and one-half hours for repairs, carrying over 37 tons per day is a record worthy of notice. KisselKar Trucks cost little to maintain and are economical to operate because the problem is solved in KisselKar construction.

Note these striking KisselKar features—Simple engine—easy to operate—reserve power—excess capacity—differential lock preventing one drive wheel absorbing all the power on slippery places, and stalling the truck—four speed transmitters geared up—fourth speed permitting high speed when desired without racing engine; 15 to 20 per cent. lower fuel consumption than average trucks—light spring suspension for power plant, heavy spring suspension for load—gauge that weighs load—greatest accessibility—easy control—larger brake drums, and extra powerful brakes—special bodies designed to meet every need.

KisselKar Trucks

1500 lbs.-1-2-3-4 and 5 Tons

In the range of capacity, 1500 lbs. to 5 tons, you can find just the type that fills your requirements—and with the KisselKar Truck goes the KisselKar Service, which is the manufacturer's guarantee of satisfaction.

KisselKar Service means taking off your hands all of the mechanical details.
A special service building is maintained in this city for the benefit of KisselKar owners.
The KisselKar service is a broad and comprehensive arrangement between manufacturer and owners that cares for the car, maintains efficiency, retards depreciation and minimizes upkeep. This service is a valuable consideration in the purchase of a power wagon. Investigate it.

Ask us to analyze your present horse haulage as compared to motor haulage. The result will be interesting.

Send for free book showing KisselKar Trucks in actual use in your line and many other lines of business.

M'DERMOTT GOT HIS PENSION

Bright Idea Strikes "Lucky Bill" When Asked if Stiff Leg Would Interfere With Work.

Private William McDermott, better known to his comrades as "Lucky Bill," was being examined by the regular army surgeon in order to have his claim for a pension verified. In his right hand he carried a heavy stick which he used as a support. Each step was accompanied with a conspicuous limp, while his face was contorted almost beyond recognition, as with pain.

"What's the matter with your leg?" asked the surgeon.

"Shot, just below the knee," returned "Lucky Bill."

The surgeon examined the injured limb, winked at his assistant, and turned again to the applicant.

"Why, man, there's nothing wrong with your leg," he said. "Your wound is almost entirely healed, and while it may cause you to limp a little it will never hinder you from making a living."

"Oh, yes, it will," argued Bill. "But how?" asked the surgeon.

Bill hesitated a moment. Then his face brightened. "I'm a song-and-dance artist," he said; "maybe you can tell how I'm going to dance with a stiff leg."

Bill got his pension. When he returned to camp a friend asked him how he made out.

"First rate," answered Bill; "why don't you go over?"

"I would if I had been injured," answered his friend.

"You lost the tip of your index finger, didn't you?" said Bill. "Just tell them you are a typewriter and use the touch system."—New York Post.

DIDN'T WANT TO EAT.

The Conductor (looking into Pullman compartment)—Half hour for dinner.

The Groom—Don't hold the train up for us, my dear fellow; we're not at all hungry.

Would Be There.

The theater in the small town was the topic being talked of by a merry party of actors and playwrights when Augustus Thomas recalled the experience of a New York manager with the owner of a playhouse over in Jersey.

"The manager had made arrangements to rehearse a new production in the Jersey house," said Mr. Thomas, "and when everything was in readiness he telegraphed as follows: 'Will hold a rehearsal in your theater at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Have your stage manager, stage carpenter, assistant stage carpenter, property man, chief electrician and all stage hands present promptly at that hour.'"

"Three hours later the manager swayed some and seized the seltzer siphon on receiving this answer: 'All right. He will be on hand.'"

—Philadelphia Telegraph.

The Breaking Point.

"Oh, darling! Tell me what worries you!"

As Desmond Kesbro spoke these words and looked into the face of the girl at his side, he felt that she was about to give him some real proof of that devotion he had often suspected.

"I was thinking, dearest," she said, shyly, as she looked into his tender eyes, "that when we were finally married, I could save you a lot of money by buying your shirts for you!"

An hour later our hero might have been seen recklessly ordering shirts in a shirt shop. And at the same time he gazed at a glittering object in his hand, and muttered to himself.

"Yes, this was the ring I gave her when I plighted my troth. How long ago it seems!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Fair Warning.

A golfer at the Haworth club, in the jolly little suburban village of that name, got off one of those grass-clipping drives, the sort that start low and bend upward as they fly. But unfortunately it struck a man on the head, and the golfer hurried up with terror in his heart.

"Who done that?" asked the stricken man gruffly, turning toward the golfer.

"I am very sorry," said the golfer. "I didn't see you. I am very sorry."

"Youse people want to be careful," said the man. "You'll be hurting somebody first thing you know."

Ill Wind in St. Louis.

"Do you have any trouble with your office boy wanting to get off during the baseball season?"

"Not for several years, now. Johnnie never seems to evince any interest in the game until the teams get into the first division."

How Fish Are Drowned.

Paradoxical as it may seem, fish have been drowned, just as human beings have been smothered by a too great pressure of air. One experiment consisted in putting fish into seltzer water, which brought about death by suffocation. If a living and healthy fish be put into water recently boiled, from which have been driven all the gases ordinarily present in distilled water, the fish dies in the same way.—Harper's Weekly.

Uses of Corn.

The most remarkable thing about corn is the new products that have been derived from it, the many new uses which science and American genius have created for it. Corn now enters into 150 different products, the most familiar being syrup sugar, breakfast foods, shortenings, salad oils and dessert.—Leslie's Weekly.

Salt to Preserve Cut Flowers.

A good way to keep cut flowers fresh is to place a small amount of pure salt of sodium in the water. It is best to procure this salt at a drug store, because commercial salt will cause the flowers to wither, due to impurities in the soda. Call for pure sodium chloride.—Popular Mechanics.

Absent-Minded.

"Smalley is an absent-minded fellow," said Bilkes. "When he was engaged to Mrs. S, he asked her to go to the opera with him one night and bought only one ticket. He explained it to her by saying that he was so used to occupying a single chair with her that he didn't think."

WORK ON NATURAL GAS PIPE LINE BEGINS MONDAY.

The first dirt toward the laying of natural gas pipe line into this city by the Central Kentucky Natural Gas Co., was turned yesterday, when a force of about fifteen men began work on the Clintonville pike in the neighborhood of the warehouse of the American Tobacco Company.

One car of an eighteen car shipment of material to be used in extending the line to this city arrived yesterday and was unloaded on the ground. The bills of lading for the other material have been received and it is expected to arrive in the next few days.

It is the purpose of the Central Kentucky Natural Gas Co. to push the work with all possible haste, working a force of men from the Clark county line to the Bourbon capital to meet half way between the two points. The workmen from this end are laying the line south on the Clintonville pike. This indicates that natural gas will more than likely be turned into Paris this fall.

Named Residences. In England one is taxed for calling one's house by a pet name. Some offenders ought to be taxed a lot; for instance, "Happihome" is the name of one dirty, decayed, originally cheap little house.

BUYS BUICK CAR. Mr. Robert Crombie, of Shawhan, purchased Saturday from Yerkes & Pritchard a handsome Buick four-seated touring car which was delivered to him yesterday.

A Refrigerator Substitute. Anyone who cannot afford a refrigerator will find this a good substitute: If you have a good cellar, procure a box, the larger the better; knock the bottom out, then dig a hole in the cellar just large enough for the box and fit in. About twice a week clean it out, strew borax around, and you will find everything nice and cool.—Women's Home Companion.

Cannot Keep It Down. Merit may be kept at the foot of the class for a while, but it will come to the head in its own good time.

An Electric Restaurant. An electric restaurant is in successful operation in London. The cooking is faultless and the prices are lower than those of the neighboring establishments of the same class.

Bonehead Plays. The exchange that suggests adding another column to tabulated baseball scores for the purpose of recording bonehead plays is justifiable, but impractical. The papers are using all the space they can afford, already.
